

Colette Errico

Associate

Colette Errico's practice focuses on insurance litigation, personal injury, and insurance defense.

Colette attended Pepperdine School of Law where she received her Juris Doctorate. Colette is experienced in evaluating Plaintiff's cases and defending Defendants in all types of civil litigation. After law school, Colette worked in Beverly Hills and Newport Beach handling personal injury cases. Prior to law school Colette worked for a national insurance company and was licensed in property and casualty insurance. While working in insurance, Colette explained the insurance policy to insureds and helped them understand the types of risks of harm they were protected from and to what extent. Colette was 2nd Runner-Up Miss Hawaii in 2009. Colette passed the Hawaii State Bar in July of 2018.
